9:00 ~ 9:05	Opening Address	Prof. Toru SHIGECHI (Nagasaki Univ.)
9:10 ~ 9:50	Research Introductions of JSUs	Prof. Shuji TANABE (Nagasaki Univ.)
10:00 ~ 11:00	Computational Fracture Simulation and Its Application to Laser Machining Technology	Prof. Akihide SAIMOTO (Mechanical Engineering, Nagasaki Univ.)
11:00 ~ 12:00	Control of a Wheeled Mobile Robot Using an Image-based Fuzzy Controller	Prof. Keigo WATANABE (Intelligent Mechanical Systems, Okayama Univ.)
12:00 ~ 14:00	Lunch break
14:00 ~ 15:00	1. Overview of Research Activities in 6 Universities 2. Physical Properties of Multi-phase Plasmas and Their Engineering Applications	Prof. Yoshihiko UESUGI (Electrical & Computer Engineering, Kanazawa Univ.)
15:00 ~ 16:00	Recent Developments in Nanostructured Materials for Advanced Energy Conversion and Storage Devices	Prof. Yasuhiko HAYASHI (Natural Science & Technology, Okayama Univ.)
16:00 ~ 17:00	Studies of Java Programming Learning Assistant System and Scalable Wireless Local Area Network	Prof. Nobuo FUNABIKI (Electrical & Communication Engineering, Okayama Univ.)
17:00~17:05	Closing Remarks	Prof. Toru SHIGECHI (Nagasaki Univ.)

December 24 (Tuesday)

9:00~ 9:30	ICT Infrastructure of Kumamoto University & Intelligent Campus Activities including Campus Wide e-Learning	Prof. Tsuyoshi USAGAWA (Computer Science & Electrical Engineering, Kumamoto Univ.)
9:30~10:00	Latest Topics of Education and Research in Information Technology Department of Nagasaki University	Prof. Senya KIYASU (Electrical Engineering & Computer Science, Nagasaki Univ.)
10:00 ~ 10:20	Education and Research Systems of Chemistry Department in Japan	Prof. Hiroto MURAKAMI (Chemistry & Materials Science, Nagasaki Univ.)

10:20 ~ 10:40	Plans for Joint Research between YTU and JSUs and Research Center	Prof. Shuji TANABE (Nagasaki Univ.)
10:40 ~ 11:30	Discussions on Joint Research and Investing Educational and Research Equipments in YTU	YTU staff and JSUs professors
11:30 ~ 13:30	Lunch break
13:30 ~ 16:50	Discussions on Strengthening Engineering Education and Introducing Lab-based Systems	YTU staff and JSUs professors
16:50 ~ 17:00	Closing Remarks	Prof. Toru SHIGECHI (Nagasaki Univ.)
