Letter of Commitment

Dear President of Nagasaki University:

I am writing this letter of commitment regarding my research activities at Nagasaki University.

1. I will abide by Nagasaki University's code of conduct for use of public research funds as well as Nagasaki University's basic policies for preventing misuse of public research funds.

2. In terms of conducting research activities and executing research funds, I agree and abide by the related rules and regulations set by Nagasaki University, as well as, including but not limited to, grant conditions and terms of use for the relevant research funds. I will execute research funds with fairness and efficiency, and will not misuse them, will not allow others to engage in the misuse, and will neither give tacit approval of nor participate in the misuse.

3. In case of misconduct through violation of, including but not limited to, rules and regulations, or any damages caused to the university due to my misconduct, I will be subject to penalty from Nagasaki University and funding institution(s), and I will be held responsible for legal obligations.

Sincerely,
