Chapter 2 Organization of Corporation

Section 1 Officers, Employees, etc.

(Officers)

Article 11 The Corporation shall have the following officers:

(1) President

(2) Trustees six persons or less

(3) Auditors two persons

2 Notwithstanding the provisions of item 2 in the preceding paragraph, if one or more Trustees are appointed on a part-time basis (which shall be limited to those who are appointed from outside the Corporation's current officers or employees [hereinafter, "outside persons"]), "six persons or less" in said item shall be deemed to be replaced with "seven persons or less."

3 Among the Auditors prescribed under paragraph 1 above, at least one shall be appointed on a full-time basis.

(Duties and Authority of the President)

Article 12 The President shall manage the affairs of the University, supervise employees under his/her jurisdiction, represent the Corporation, and preside over the services of the Corporation.

2 If the President makes a decision on a matter provided for in paragraph 3 of Article 11 of the Ho-Jin-Ho, he/she shall hold a meeting of the Trustees of Nagasaki University.

(Duties and Authority of Trustees)

Article 13 Trustees shall assist the President in managing the services of the Corporation as instructed by the President, perform the duties of the President on his/her behalf if he/she is unavailable, and execute the President's duties when the post of the President is vacant.

(Duties and Authority of Auditor)

Article 14 The Auditor shall audit the services of the Corporation. In this case, the Auditor shall prepare an audit report as provided for in the Ordinance of the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology.

2 At any time, the Auditor may require officers (excluding Auditors) and employees to report the administration and business, or may research the status of the services and assets of the Corporation.

3 If the Corporation intends to submit documents pertaining to the authorization, approval, certification or notification pursuant to the provisions of the Ho-Jin-Ho or the provisions of the Act on General Rules for Incorporated Administrative Agencies (Act No. 103 of 1999; hereinafter, the "Mutatis Mutandis General Rules Act") as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 35 of the Ho-Jin-Ho and written reports or other documents specified by the Ordinance of the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology to the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology, the Auditor shall check these documents.

4 If the Auditor deems it necessary based on the result of the check, the Auditor may submit his/her opinion to the President or the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology.

(Obligation of Report to President, etc.)

Article 14-2 If the Auditor determines that officers (excluding Auditors) have engaged in wrongful acts or are likely to do so, or finds any facts that violate or are seriously contrary to the spirit of the Ho-Jin-Ho or other laws and regulations, the Auditor shall report such situation to the President (or, in the case where such officer is the President, to the President and the Nagasaki University Presidential Nominations and Supervisory Committee as prescribed in paragraph 2 of the following Article) and the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology promptly.

(Appointment of Officers)

- Article 15 The appointment of the President shall be made by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology based on the proposal of the Corporation.
- 2 The proposal under the preceding paragraph shall be made based on the nomination by the Nagasaki University Presidential Nominations and Supervisory Committee (hereinafter, the “Presidential Nominations and Supervisory Committee”).
 - 3 The nomination of the President set forth in the preceding paragraph shall be made in accordance with the standard specified by the Presidential Nominations and Supervisory Committee from among persons with a noble character, excellent academic knowledge, and the capability of operating the education and research activities of the University properly and effectively.
 - 4 If the nomination of the President set forth in paragraph 2 is made, the Corporation shall announce publicly and promptly the result of such nomination and other matters specified by the Ordinance of the Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology, and, if the Presidential Nominations and Supervisory Committee specifies or changes the standard set forth in the preceding paragraph, the standard in question.
 - 5 Matters necessary for the nomination of the President shall be specified by the Presidential Nominations and Supervisory Committee separately.
 - 6 Trustees shall be appointed by the President from among the persons set forth in paragraph 3.
 - 7 If the President appoints Trustees pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, he/she shall notify the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology and publicly announce the matter promptly.

8 When the President appoints Trustees, he/she shall ensure that the Trustees include two or more outside persons.

9 Auditors shall be appointed by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology.

(Term of Office of Officers)

Article 16 The term of office of the President shall be specified by the Presidential Nominations and Supervisory Committee separately, within the scope of two years or longer and six years or shorter.

2 The term of office of a Trustee shall be two years, and he/she may be reappointed; provided, however, that in the case of a midterm vacancy for a Trustee, the term of office of the successor shall be the remaining term of office of the predecessor.

3 In the case of the preceding paragraph, the last day of the term of office of the Trustee shall be prior to the last day of the term of office of the President who appoints the Trustee in question.

4 The term of office of an Auditor shall continue until the time of approval of the financial statements provided for in paragraph 1 of Article 38 of the Mutatis Mutandis General Rules Act relating to the last business year which ends within four years from the time of said Auditor's appointment, and he/she may be reappointed; provided, however, that in the case of a midterm vacancy for an Auditor, the term of office of the successor shall be the remaining term of office of the predecessor.

5 If a Trustee is reappointed and if the Trustee in question was not actually an officer or employee of the Corporation at the time of his/her first appointment, the Trustee in question shall be deemed not actually an officer or employee of the Corporation at the time of his/her reappointment for the purpose of application of the provisions of paragraph 8 of the preceding Article.

(Duty of Loyalty of Officers)

Article 16-2 Officers shall perform their duties in compliance with laws and regulations, dispositions executed by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology based on the laws and regulations, operational procedures, and other rules specified by the Corporation and in good faith for the sake of the Corporation.

(Obligation of Reporting by Officers)

Article 16-3 If officers (excluding Auditors) find any fact that is likely to cause serious damage to the Corporation, they shall report such fact to the Auditor immediately.

(Reasons for Disqualification of Officers)

Article 17 Employees of the national government or local public bodies (excluding those employed on a part-time basis) shall not be qualified as officers.

2 Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, persons who fall under public educational personnel and staff and are provided for in Article 2 of the Ho-Jin-Ho Enforcement Order may be qualified as officers or auditors employed on a part-time basis.

(Dismissal of Officers)

Article 18 If officers appointed by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology or the President come to fall under persons disqualified as officers based on the provisions of the preceding Article, the Minister or the President shall dismiss such officers.

2 If officers appointed by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology or the President come to fall under any of the following, or the Minister or the President determines that such officers are otherwise not suitable as officers, the Minister or the President may dismiss such officers.

(1) If it is determined that such officers are incapable of performing their duties by reason of their mental or physical disorder;

(2) If such officers violate their job-related obligations.

3 In addition to the items set forth in the preceding paragraph, if it is determined by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology or the President that the achievement of services by the Corporation has deteriorated for reason of the officers appointed by them (excluding Auditors) executing their duties improperly and that it is not appropriate to have such officers execute their duties continuously, the Minister or the President may dismiss such officers.

4 When the Presidential Nominations and Supervisory Committee has received a report under the provisions of Article 14-2 or when it determines that the President is likely to fall under either of the two preceding paragraphs, it may request the President to submit a report on the execution of his/her duties.

5 The dismissal of the President by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology pursuant to the provisions of paragraphs 2 and 3 shall be made based on the proposal of the Presidential Nominations Committee.

6 If the President dismisses Trustees pursuant to the provisions of paragraphs 1 to 3, the President shall notify the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology promptly and publicly announce said matter.

(Restriction on Right of Representation)

Article 19 The President shall have no right of representation in matters in which the interests of the Corporation and the President conflict. In this case, the Auditor shall represent the Corporation.

(Appointment of Agent)

Article 20 The President may appoint an agent who is authorized to perform any act in or out of court in connection with a part of the services of the Corporation from among the Trustees, Auditors and employees.

(Liability of Officers for Compensation of Damage)

Article 20-2 If officers are negligent in performing their duties, they shall be liable to the Corporation to compensate damage arising from such non-performance.

2 The liability under the preceding paragraph shall not be exempted without the approval of the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology.

(Employees)

Article 21 The Corporation shall have employees.

2 Matters necessary for employees set forth in the preceding paragraph shall be specified separately.

(Confidentiality Obligation of Officers and Employees)

Article 22 Officers and employees shall not leak any confidential matter that becomes known to them in the process of performing their duties. The same shall apply after they retire from their jobs.
