授業のねらい/授業方法(学習指導法)/授業到達目標 授業のねらい: This course aims to improve student's proficiency in reading and writing English. The focus of reading will be on developing reading strategies, building vocabulary repertoire and analyzing language structures leading to better comprehension. The writing part will be used to reinforce the target structures and vocabulary learned, as well as for students to express their comprehension regarding the reading and express their ideas. 授業方法: Individual strategies will be introduced and practiced through selected reading passages. Vocabulary and structures that could hinder comprehension will be pretaught. Techniques such as context clues and word analysis will be used to build up vocabulary skills, and sentence analysis will be the method used to combine the understanding of forms to meaning. 授業到達目標: By the end of the course, students would be able to apply the strategies learned to better comprehend passages at the intermediate level of difficulty; make use of vocabulary techniques to guess the meaning of unfamiliar words; and express their ideas using the target structures in correct sentences.
