授業のねらい/授業方法 (学習指導法) /授業到達目標 授業のねらい: This course aims to improve students' proficiency in reading and writing English. The focus of reading will be on developing reading strategies, building a vocabulary repertoire and analyzing language structures. The writing part will be used to reinforce the target structures, as well as to encourage students to express their comprehension especially through giving reasons and opinions, and completing guided summaries of reading passages. 授業方法: Individual strategies will be introduced and practiced through selected reading passages. Structures that could hinder comprehension and help to develop students' writing ability will be dealt with before reading the passages. Techniques such as context clues and word analysis will be used to enhance vocabulary development skills. Self-study practice will be assigned to develop writing fluency and reading skills. 授業到達目標: By the end of the course, students would be able to apply the strategies learned to better comprehend passages at the pre-intermediate level of difficulty; make use of vocabulary techniques to guess the meaning of unfamiliar words; and express their ideas using the target structures in correct sentences.
授業内容(概要) /授業内容(毎週毎の授業内容を含む) 授業内容(概要) The scope of reading strategies ranges from skimming and scanning to reading for thorough understanding of main ideas, details and inferences.
