授業のねらい・内容・方法
The aim of this course is to learn Mind mapping skills and presentation skills and practice in small groups. Class time will be divided between honing English reading and writing skills individually and developing listening skills and presentation skills in small groups. If English skill improvement is to be seen, students should be prepared to do some homework. Students are expected to put effort into choosing topics which interest them and which they feel passionate about.
テキスト、教材等
Students are required to buy a package of Graded Readers, a notebook for writing and note-taking, colored pens for writing and a Clear File (20 pockets) to keep class handouts.
