

Historical Sketch

The origin of Nagasaki University can be traced back to the time when Pompe van Meerdervoort, a medical officer of the Naval Training Center, started medical training in a room in the West Office of the Nagasaki Magistrate's Office in November 12, 1857.

1857. 11	• Medical Training started at the West Office of the Nagasaki Magistrate's Office.	5	• Training Center for Elementary School Teacher was renamed Nagasaki Prefectural Normal School.
1861. 9	• Yojocho (Sanatorium) was established (origin of Nagasaki University Hospital)	6	• Nagasaki Hospital Medical Training Center was established in Nagasaki Hospital to resume medical education.
	• Igakusho was built next to it. (Facilities for medical education institution were completed)	1877. 4	• Nagasaki Prefectural Normal School was renamed Kiyo Normal School.
1865	• Yojocho (Sanatorium) was renamed Seitokukan School of Medicine. In October, Bunseki Kyurijyo (educational institution to teach basic science including physics and chemistry) was established.	1878. 1	• Nagasaki Hospital Medical Training Center was renamed Nagasaki Medical School.
1868. 10	• Seitokukan School of Medicine was renamed the Nagasaki City School of Medicine.	2	• National Nagasaki Normal School was discontinued. Its buildings and equipment were transferred to Nagasaki Prefecture.
1869	• Nagasaki City School of Medicine was renamed Nagasaki Prefectural School of Medicine.	6	• Kiyo Normal School was renamed Nagasaki Normal School.
1871. 10	• The Ministry of Education held jurisdiction over Nagasaki Prefectural School of Medicine and changed its name to National Nagasaki Medical School.	1879. 1	• Nagasaki Medical School became prefectural and had Nagasaki Hospital become its affiliated school.
1874	• Due to troop deployment in Taiwan, education function of National Nagasaki Medical School was discontinued whereas hospital function was transferred to the branch hospital.	1883	• According to the Ordinance of the Ministry of Education, Nagasaki Medical School was designated as a Class A medical school. (Medical license could be granted after graduation without taking national examinations. Only 13 such schools existed in Japan.)
2	• National Nagasaki Normal School was established.	1884. 6	• Nagasaki Prefectural Women's Normal School was established.
3	• Nagasaki Elementary School Teacher Training Center was established.	1886. 4	• Nagasaki Prefectural Women's Normal School merged with Nagasaki Normal School and established its Women's Branch.
1875	• Due to the completion of troop deployment in Taiwan, buildings of the branch hospital were transferred to Nagasaki Prefecture. With a subsidy from the Japanese government, Nagasaki Hospital was established.	6	• Nagasaki Normal School, Women's Branch established its affiliated kindergarten.
2	• Nagasaki Elementary School Teacher Training Center was renamed Training Center.	6	• According to the Normal School Ordinance, Nagasaki Normal School was renamed Nagasaki Prefectural Normal School for Primary Education.
11	• Elementary School affiliated with National Nagasaki Normal School was established.
1876. 1	• Training Center was renamed Training Center for Elementary School Teacher.
