授 業 の ね ら い ・ 内 容 ・ 方 法
The main aim of this course is to give 2 nd year students more opportunities to practice English communication in class through presentations. Another aim is to help students find ways to maintain their English skills independently. Extensive reading and writing skills will be practiced weekly. Students will be expected to read one book a week. Students should be prepared to do some Homework. For example, poster creation, interviews, surveys, and evaluations not finished in class time will have to be finished outside of class time.
テ キ ス ト 、 教 材 等
There will be no textbook. Students will be responsible for choosing a book to read every week from the library. Students will also be expected to keep their class handouts and notes organized.
